(10) trading days before the 13 June 2023 (the “Subscription Price”). The Subscription Price may however not be lower than the quotient value of the share. As stated in section 7 below, the Subscription Price and/or the number of shares that each Employee Stock Option entitles to may be re-calculated.

5.2 The Employee Stock Options are vested under a period of three (3) years from the date of this Agreement and allotted according to the following:

6. CONDITIONS FOR EXERCISE

6.1 When the Stock Option Holder wishes to exercise the allotted Employee Stock Options for subscription of shares, the Employee Stock Options shall be exercised as set out below.

6.2 The Stock Option Holder’s right to exercise the Employee Stock Options for subscription of shares is, unless the board of directors resolves otherwise, conditional on, firstly, that the conditions in this agreement are met (meaning amongst other things that the Employee Stock Options have been vested and allotted according to 5.2 above) and, secondly, that the Stock Option Holder’s employment in the Company has not been terminated or that notice of such termination has not been given prior to the exercise of the Employee Stock Options.

6.3 Exercise of the Employee Stock Options can be made during the period commencing on the day that occurs three (3) years from the date of this Agreement up to and including 31 December 2026 (the “Exercise Period”).

6.4 The Employee Stock Options shall also be eligible for earlier exercise at the following occasions:

For example, if a share split is made where each share is divided into ten new shares, each Employee Stock Option will entitle to subscription of ten shares instead of one share and consequently for a tenth of the Subscription Price per share.

8. THE STOCK OPTION HOLDER'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR ITS TAX SITUATION

The Stock Option Holder is responsible for his or her tax situation and the consequences of the exercise of the Employee Stock Options. According to the tax rules applicable at signing of this agreement, the Stock Option Holder will – as a main rule – at exercise be taxed for income of employment for an amount corresponding to the difference between the share market value (at the time of exercise) and the Subscription Price. The Parties agree that the Company does not have any obligation to inform the Stock Option Holder regarding potential changes of relevant tax rules. The Stock Option Holder is recommended, if necessary, to seek advice with regards to his/her own tax situation.

9. TRANSFER ETC.

- 9.1 Any Employee Stock Options which have not been exercised in accordance with the provisions above at the expiration of the Exercise Period will lapse, entailing that the Stock Option Holder's possibility to exercise them to acquire shares – as well as other rights connected to them – will lapse. The same shall apply if the Employee Stock Options lapse due to other provision of this agreement or if the Stock Option Holder has not fulfilled his/her payment obligation in due time. If the Employee Stock Options lapse according to this agreement, the Stock Option Holder has no right to compensation.

- 9.2 The Stock Option Holder is not entitled to transfer, pledge or in any other manner dispose of the Employee Stock Options or the rights and obligations pursuant to this agreement.
- 9.3 If the Stock Option Holder disposes of some or all of the Employee Stock Options in violation of the conditions in this agreement, all of the Employee Stock Options will lapse, entailing that the Company will no longer have an obligation to deliver shares according to this agreement.

10. OTHER CONDITIONS

- 10.2 All amendments and supplements to this agreement shall be made in writing and be signed by both Parties to be binding. However, the Company has the right to unilaterally make such minor amendments to the conditions in this agreement to the extent it may be required in accordance with legislation, court decisions or government decisions to change the terms or if it otherwise - in the board's assessment - may be considered appropriate or necessary to change the terms and the Stock Options Holder rights are not impaired in any respect. The Stock Option Holder shall be informed of such amendments without delay.
- 10.3 If any provision of this agreement is determined to be invalid, this shall not make the entire agreement invalid. Such invalid provision shall instead be replaced with a provision which to the largest extent possible corresponds to the content in and intentions behind the invalid provision.

11. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTES

- 11.1 This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with substantive Swedish law, meaning among other things that words and concepts used in this agreement shall have the meaning that follows from Swedish law at any given time.

The Rules for Expedited Arbitrations shall apply, unless the SCC in its discretion determines – taking into account the complexity of the case, the amount in dispute and other circumstances – that the Arbitration Rules shall apply. In the latter case, the SCC shall also decide whether the Arbitral Tribunal shall be composed of one or three arbitrators. The seat of arbitration shall be Stockholm and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.
